Once a Marine always a Marine Hands Across the Sea

Danny Garcia, former United States Marine Corps Sergeant, is being assisted in his attempt to Walk around the World 'for Children & World Peace' with the aid of the Royal Marines Reserve.

He plans to depart from George Square, Glasgow 10 AM Friday 02 October and walk 50 miles per day until he reaches the US Embassy in London passing through both Manchester and Birmingham on his travels.

Danny Garcia has already walked over 5,000 miles across the United States and has just completed the Irish section of his walk from Dublin to Belfast via Omagh.

Danny anticipates finishing his 'Walk around the World' in Sydney Australia at the Opening Ceremony of the Olympics on 15 Sep 2000.

Danny's Progress can be found on website [www.en espanol.com/our.world](http://www.en espanol.com/our.world). For further information on Danny's walk please contact Warrant Officer 2 Kenny Dalton
